What’s what on the Library’s Home Page (http://www.frostburg.edu/lewis-ort-library/)

Get Reference Assistance
Ask a Librarian: e-mail reference assistance
AskUsNow: Chat with a librarian 24/7

OneSearch and Other Search Options
Provides access to OneSearch, which searches most library databases and the USMAI catalog. Also provides direct access to the library catalog, e-books, subject specific database, and access to specific journals.

Library News & Events
Provides information about what is happening in the library and will also highlight different resources and services that the library offers.

Quick Links
Provides access to different resources and services that the library provides including links to the hours for the library, information on the different departments in the library, access to Interlibrary Loan, Special Collections, Government Documents, and information on Citation Styles.

Library Instruction Calendar
Provides information about which library instruction classes have been scheduled in the library. Instructors can use the calendar to help schedule a class.